Lot 14 - Australia Post book of Australian zoos, published for Stamp Collecting month October 1994. Includes the miniature sheet, scanned on next page. 40 pages, A4 size. Cover scanned 40%.

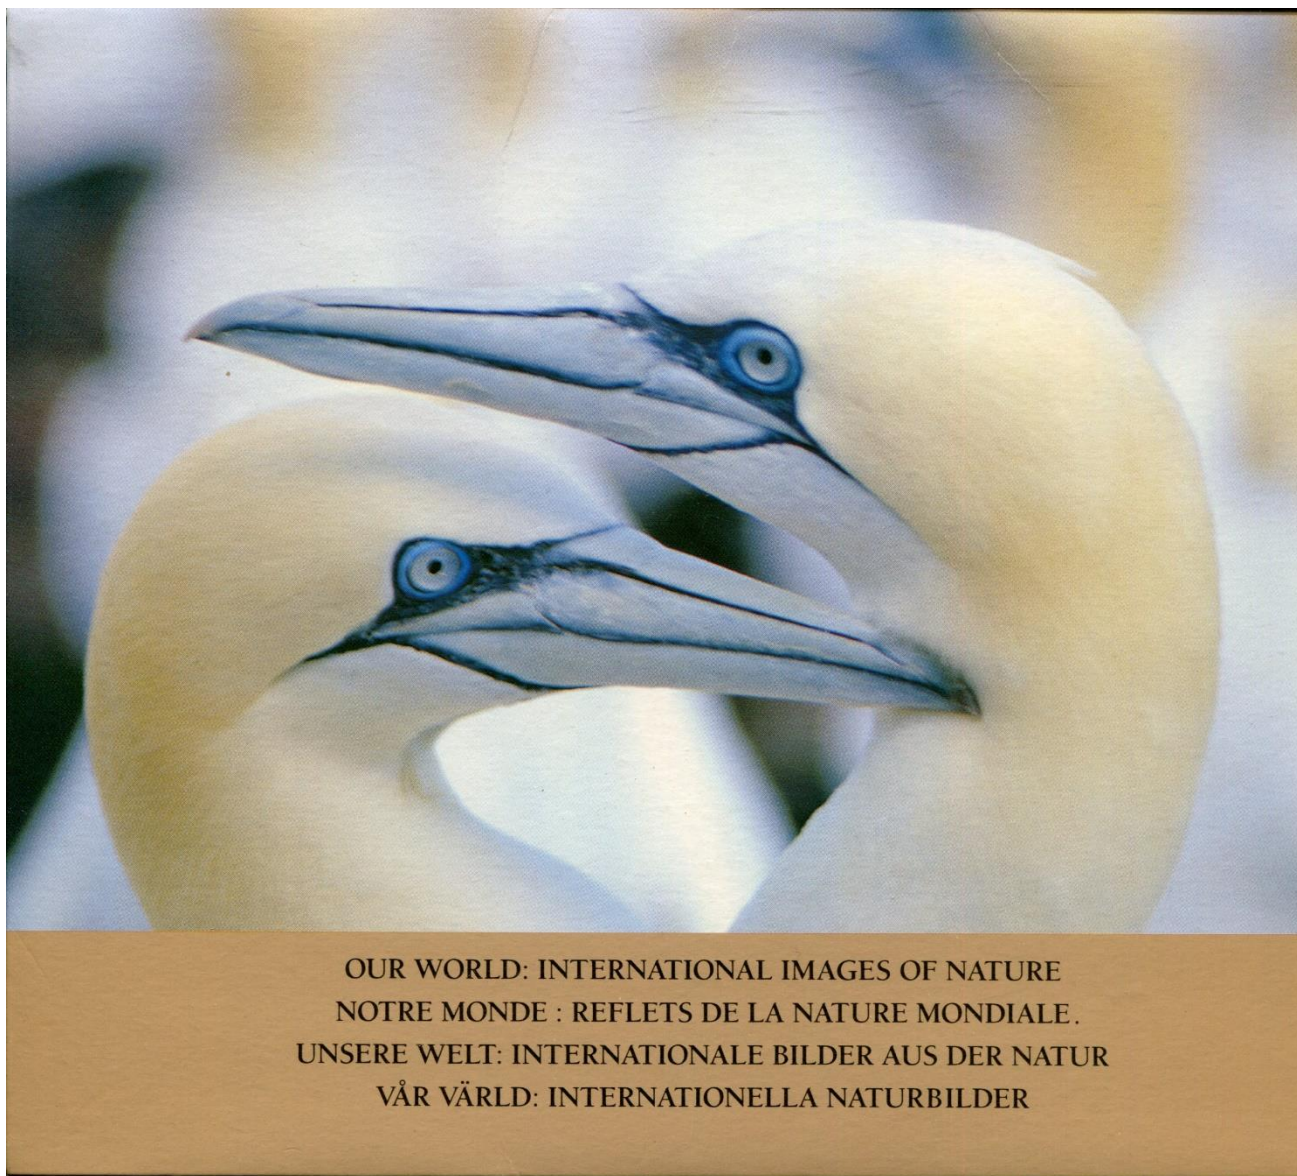

Lot 15 - Wildlife stamps of six nations, in the one folder. Cover shown below at 75%.

The stamps are contained in a folder, this is the outer cover. Scan at 90%.

The stamps from the six nations are inside in a folder. Shown at 50%. This is a classy presentation, and a must for collectors of nature, animals, birds, or environmental issues.

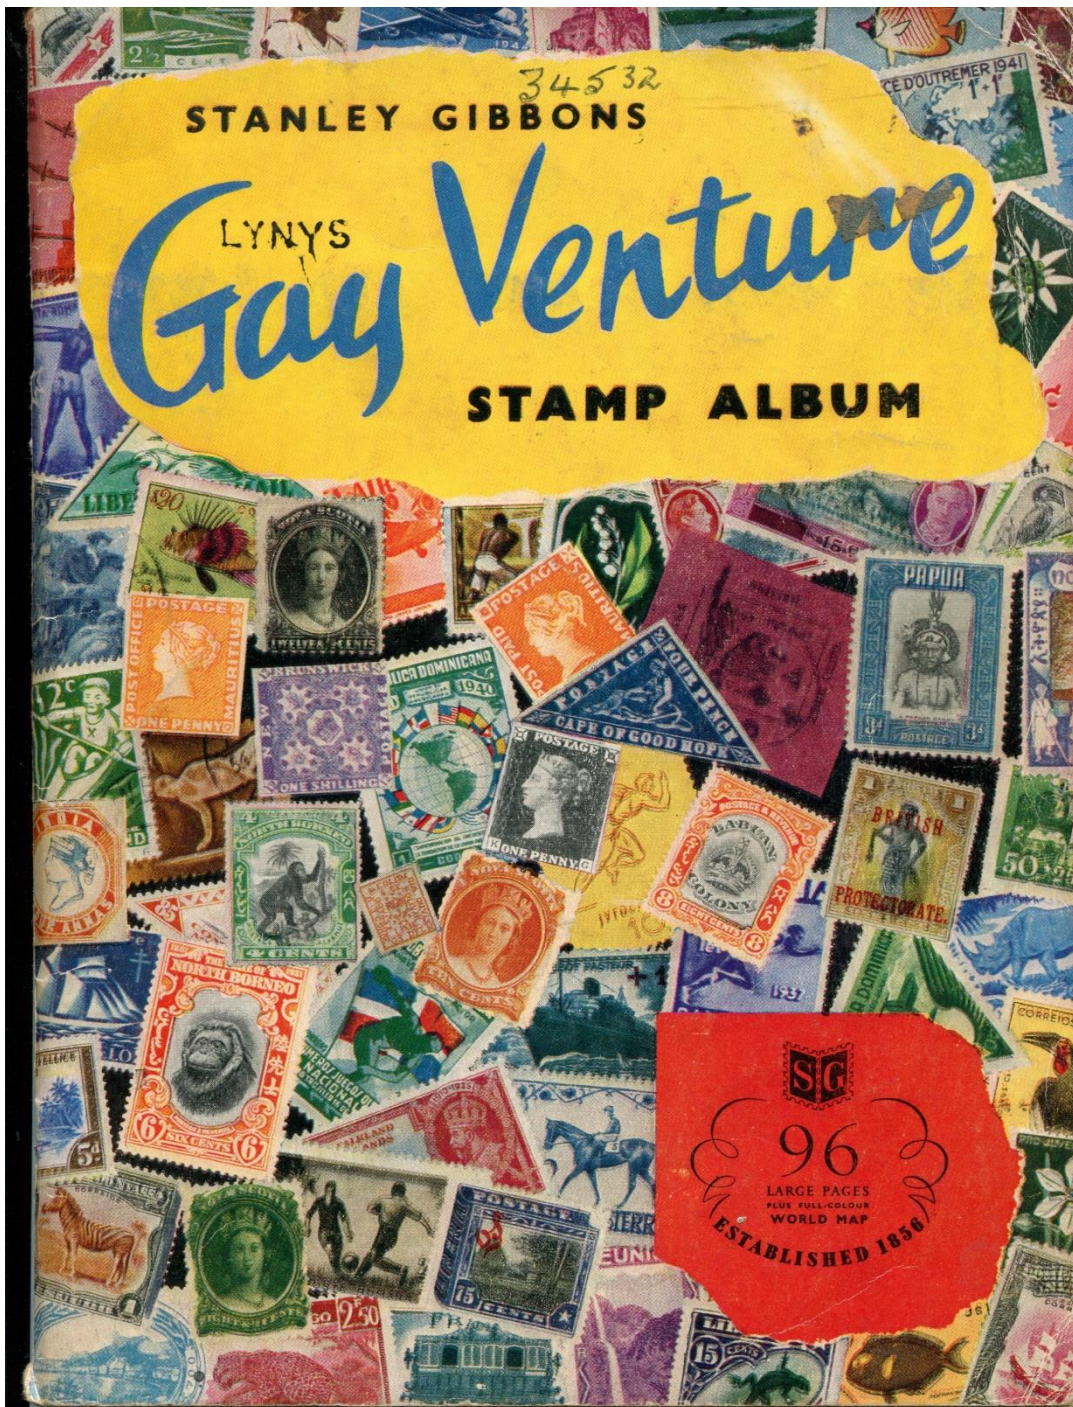

Lot 16 - five booklets, four of which are old schoolboy collections, and the other being the 1973 edition of THE AUSTRALASIAN STAMP CATALOGUE, printed in black and white. The stamp albums are published by Stanley Gibbons and Seven Seas. I have scanned the covers at 75%.

A fully illustrated stamp album with spaces for all postage stamps issued by the Commonwealth of Australia since Federation. With blank pages for new issues, special issues, covers, varieties, etc.

STAMP ALBUM

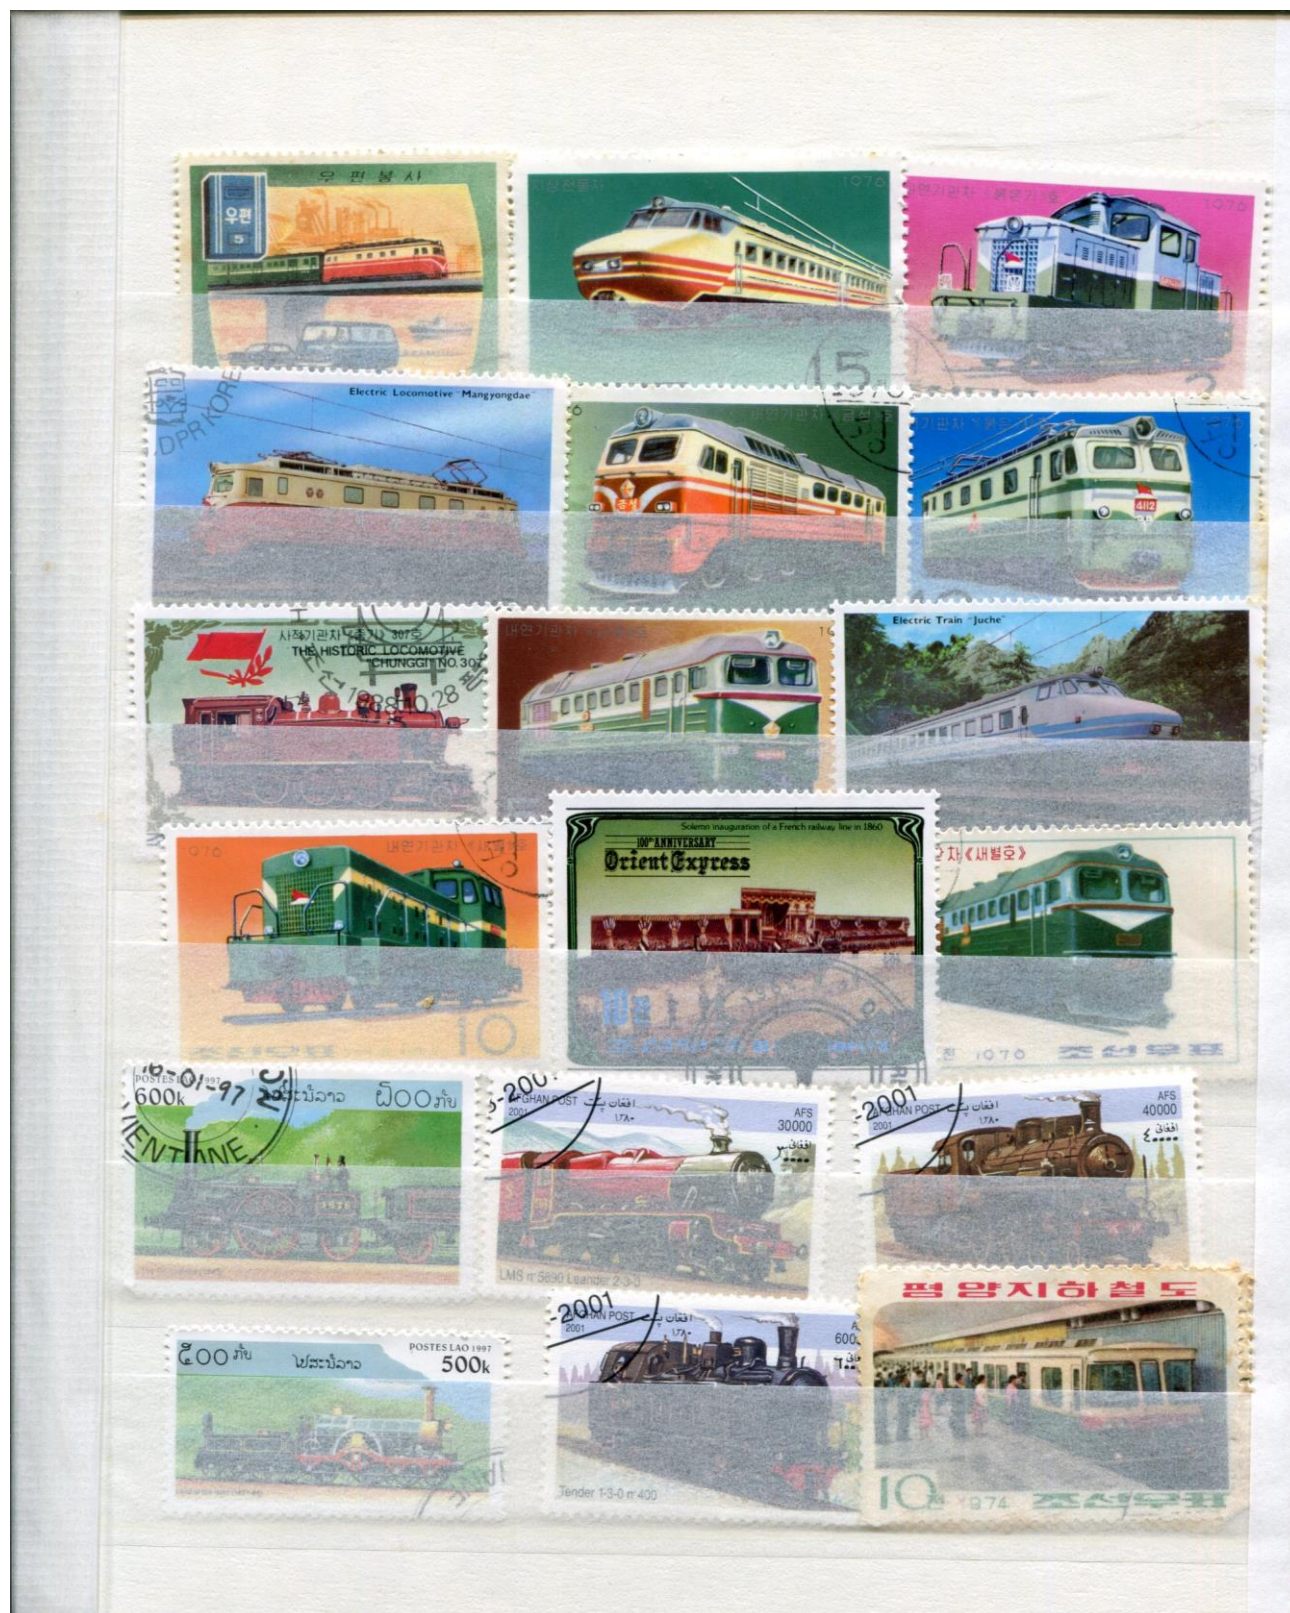

Lot 17 - two small Chinese stockbooks, full with stamps featuring trains and locomotives, and everything railway related. Great range of countries. Most stamps are targeted at the collector/packet market, and have not been used postally. A great opportunity for the thematic collector, or start a new collection.

Cover of one of the two albums.

Lot 18 - First of three foolscap or folio size folders, with home made pages featuring stamps of non-issuing countries, such as MANAMA, RAS AL KHAIMA, UMM AL QIWAIN, FUJEIRA, and a few others such as ALBANIA and DUBAI. All are bright and colourful stamps and minisheets.

Scanned at 75%.

Lot 19 - similar to Lot 18, except most of these are from countries which issue legitimate stamps. Has more stamps than the previous lot.

Lot 20 - similar home-made book, except nearly empty. Has lots of blank pages and a few stamps.

Lot 21 - Australia Post yearbook 1986, still in the original plastic.

Lot 22 - range of 1938 cinderella stamps. All are mint unhinged, although some have stuck together. Careful peeling may reward.

Lot 23 - Photograph album in a silver cardboard box. The pages in the photo album are black, unused, and are spiral bound so they open flat. Ideal for a stamp album, although there are no replacement pages or extra pages available. Scan below at 75%.

Lot 24 - two stamp packets from China. Their origin is unknown. One has 8 stamps stuck down, with three coins on the reverse. Their coins are made from aluminium. Scans at 75%.
