

Philatelic Quiz #3

1. Cancels that have been struck in the centre of the stamp are said to be what?

- (A) Hammerhead
- (B) Bullseye
- (C) Socked-on-the-nose

2. A printed design or logo on an envelope, card or aerogram, that prepays postage in the same manner as a postage stamp, is called a what?

- (A) Indicium
- (B) Embossing
- (C) Stationery stamp

3. Postal envelopes, cards and aerograms which have no stamps or indicia or other forms of payment attached, are described as what?

- (A) Gratis
- (B) Formular
- (C) Unpaid

4. This stamp was issued by which authority or country?

- (A) United States of America
- (B) United Nations – New York Office
- (C) UNESCO – New York Office

5. Stamps which have been perforated so that the design is not in the middle of the stamp are said to be:

- (A) Off-centre
- (B) Re-perfed
- (C) Single line perf

6. The small piece of thin lightly gummed paper which holds a stamp to an album page is called a what?

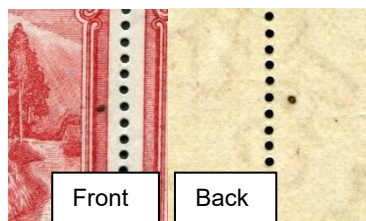

- (A) Hinge
- (B) Holder
- (C) Mount

7. Stamps which have been carelessly removed from the envelope or wrapper can have their paper partly torn away. A stamp in this condition is referred to as what?

- (A) Wafered
- (B) Thinned
- (C) Transparent

8. Sometimes there are imperfections in paper, caused by 'foreign material' (often dirt) getting into the paper pulp as the paper is being made. This is described as what? Image at 150%.

- (A) Natural paper inclusion
- (B) Paper gunk
- (C) Black paper spot

9. A postmark applied to the back of an envelope for the purpose of recording the arrival at a post office is called a what?

- (A) Retro cancel
- (B) Backstamp
- (C) Late mark

10. If you have a bundle of stamps with many copies of same stamp or stamps in it, the bundle of stamps is said to have what?

- (A) Duplication
- (B) Replication
- (C) Over-representation

11. These stamps are known by the name of the artist who painted the portrait of a young Queen Victoria. The same image was used in many British colonies. Who was the artist?

- (A) Von Angeli
- (B) Corbould
- (C) Chalon

12.. A stamp which is 'married' to the original envelope cutting, postcard or wrapper by the postmark which extends over the stamp and surrounding paper, is said to be what to the paper?

- (A) Proofed
- (B) Used
- (C) Tied

13. What do the letters f d i stand for?

- (A) First Day of Issue
- (B) First Dip Ink
- (C) Final Days Indicated

14. Stamps which have been printed on the same sheet but differ from each other in the design, colour or value, are called what?

- (A) Joined
- (B) Special Commemorative
- (C) Se tenant

15. This stamp was issued for what purpose:

- (A) Collect underpaid postage
- (B) Attached for special postage rates
- (C) To return overpayments

16. When the wet ink has partly printed onto the back of another sheet, this is called what?

- (A) Kiss print
- (B) Touch print
- (C) Reverse printing

17. The printing $2.50 serves what purpose?

- (A) Maximum value of these stamps to be used on one parcel
- (B) Reminder about the parcel postage rates
- (C) Value of the sheet of stamps

18. The kangaroo and koala logos in the margin of this block serve what purpose?

- (A) Code for number of printings of this stamp
- (B) Appeal to overseas collectors
- (C) Code for the year that the stamps were printed

19. Which stamp issuing nation produced this stamp?

- (A) Austro-Hungarian Empire
- (B) Magyar Republic
- (C) Hungary

20. Two colour stamps have a frame or boundary around the outside, and an image in the middle in a different colour. What is the term for the central image?

- (A) Picture
- (B) Vignette
- (C) Portrait

